PROBERS TO BE PROBED; THEY AREN'T WORRIED

supervisors have objected in that at times the commissioners drew pay for thirty-one days' work a month. The commissioners in reply say that they actually put in at work every day for which payment was made, and that on the authority of the attorney-general's advice they were entitled to pay for Sundays or holidays on which they labored.

Sent Detailed Statement.

Commissioner Williamson said this morning that early last month he sent to the supervisors of Hawaii county a detailed statement of the commission's expenditures. He has the original entries in the ledger previously referred to and which he will keep in his own possession for awhile. The correctness of the statement, however, can easily be ascertained by checking the items with the territorial auditor's books.

"Whether we have spent our funds wisely or not is a matter of judgment, and the Hawaii county supervisors may differ with us on this," said Williamson today. "However, the legality of our acts cannot be questioned under the opinions from the attorney-general by which our course was guided."

Commissioner E. A. C. Long is no more worried than is Williamson. Dr. Elliot has not yet been heard from.

Round and Round.

While the special Hilo probers are probing the Hawaii county probers, the Hawaii county probers will be completing their own probe. This sounds rather involved, but it is quite simple. A new agreement between the commission and Auditor Field has been entered into and the auditing of the Hawaii county books up to last spring can be finished with the funds now in hand. When that is done and when the commission has completed its investigations, which will be in the course of a few weeks, everything will be wound up, so far as this commission is concerned, except the writhing of the report and possibly the court procedure of the prosecutions carried on by Breckons.

Meanwhile the new committee of probers will be probing the original probers and some interesting developments are expected.

HOCHI AVERS THE CHE-FA LOTTERY IS RUNNING WILD

ling heat and never once did he report to me as having received any information as to where games were in progress," said McDuffie. "This went on for some time, and, after receiving no reports from him, I went out and soon rounded up the promoters of two separate lotteries. In one instance we got the entire outfit, and in another we arrested the banker and one of his agents. The other five of the former band were released on nolle prosequi. Warrants have been issued for certain agents and the trial is expected to come up tomorrow. The fact that the games were not stopped before is due to Kuroda's failure to report. If anyone in this department received hush money, it must have been him. There is nothing to the story in the Japanese paper.

"I haven't the least doubt but what Kuroda furnished the greater part of the material for the story. For three weeks prior to his discharge, reports were continuously coming into this office concerning Japanese who had been robbed; and they were always coming to the office and asking for Kuroda. Since Kuroda's discharge but one report of a robbery of a Japanese has come to this department, and that came in this morning and was to the effect that a storekeeper had lost a couple of boxes of cigars. It certainly looks like a frame-up. The principals in the two games which I found to be running have been arrested."

JAMES D. DOLE SAYS BUSINESS FOR YEAR GOOD

made by the plantation, the cannery profit alone amounting to $98,000.74, or less than three-quarters of a cent per can.

"Our miscellaneous income for the year was swelled abnormally by the sale of plants.

"On October 1, 1913, we entered into a new contract with the American Can Company, cancelling our previous contract. This is effecting a very considerable annual saving, and in the opinion of the management is more advantageous to the company than to enter the can making field at the present time.

"The Koolau Fruit Company, the stock of which is all owned by this company, sold during the year $46,489.11 worth of fruit. With reasonably favorable weather conditions, its income for 1914 should equal its expenditures.

'DR.' CHU FONG IS ONCE MORE IN TROUBLE WITH HEALTH BOARD

"Dr." Chu Fong again finds himself involved in troubles with the territorial health authorities.

Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, president of the board of health, has had occasion to cause an investigation of the methods followed by Chu Fong, who as the proprietor of a Chinese drug store until about a year ago held a certificate to practice medicine in the territory of Hawaii.

The death of a year-old Chinese baby yesterday afternoon, supposed to have been ailing from pneumonia, and treated by Chu Fong, caused the authorities to conduct an autopsy this morning.

The child is said to have passed away as a result of acute tubercular meningitis.

According to the story related by the parents, they sent for Chu Fong when it was discovered that the child was seriously ill. The man, who about a year ago was denied the privilege of practicing medicine, is declared to have visited the home, administered treatment and left medicines. An analysis of the drug found in the child's stomach is now being made.

The Chinese figured in a sensational case more than a year ago at which time he was convicted of having treated a Chinese, who afterward became seriously ill through blood poisoning from the application of certain remedies prescribed by Chu Fong.

Following an investigation made at that time the Chinese druggist was deprived of a license.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once—No more falling hair

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Dandarine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandarine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Dandarine. If eventually—why not now?—advertisement.
